

RCW 43.63A.315 Independent youth housing account. The independent youth housing account is created in the state treasury. All revenue directed to the independent youth housing program must be deposited into this account. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may only be used for the independent youth housing program as described in RCW 43.63A.305. [2007 c 316 s 7.]

Finding—2007 c 316: See note following RCW 43.63A.305.