

WAC 132Q-10-115 Decisions and appeals. Decisions made by a student conduct board, the student conduct officer, or chief student services officer shall remain in effect during the appeal processes provided in this chapter unless an order of stay is granted by the chief student services officer. Students must identify if they are seeking a stay of a decision by the student conduct board, the student conduct officer or chief student services officer in their appeal. Appeals will comply with this chapter.
