

WAC 137-56-160 Termination of plan. At any time after approval has been granted to any partial confinement program individual to participate in the program, such approval may be revoked, and the individual may be sent to a state correctional institution or jail. A partial confinement individual may be terminated from the program as a result of a disciplinary or classification decision or the following:

- (1) If requested in writing by the partial confinement individual;
- (2) If the partial confinement individual lacks aptitude for the assignment or is improperly placed; or
- (3) If the partial confinement individual has been unable to adjust or adapt to the conditions of the partial confinement program; or
- (4) If the partial confinement individual's situation and circumstances have significantly changed; or
- (5) If the individual is on partial confinement programs and their circumstances, situation or living arrangements change, they may be returned to a reentry center to develop a new plan; or
- (6) If the partial confinement individual has failed to comply with federal or state laws or local ordinances.
