

WAC 139-10-212 Physical requirements for admission to basic corrections academies. (1) For admission to the corrections officers academy or juvenile corrections officers academy, each recruit must possess good health and physical capability to actively and fully participate in defensive tactics training and other required physical activities.

(2) In order to minimize risk of injury and maximize the benefit of such participation, each recruit in any academy session must, as a precondition of their academy admission, demonstrate a requisite level of physical fitness, as established by the commission.

For this purpose, each recruit must be evaluated in accordance with the policies and procedures established by the commission.

(3) Failure to demonstrate a requisite level of fitness will result in ineligibility for academy admission.
