

WAC 173-351-760 Appeals. Whenever the jurisdictional health department denies a permit or suspends a permit for a solid waste disposal site, it must, upon request of the application or holder of the permit, grant a hearing on such denial or suspension within thirty days after the request is made. Notice of the hearing must be given to all interested parties including the county or city having jurisdiction over the site and the department. Within thirty days after the hearing the health officer must notify the applicant or the holder of the permit in writing of the determination. Any party aggrieved by such determination may appeal to the pollution control hearings board by filing with the hearings board a notice of appeal within thirty days after receipt of notice of the determination of the health officer. The hearings board will hold a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.
