

WAC 246-805-250 Licensed assistant behavior analyst—Supervision disclosure. Prior to providing services to a client, a LABA shall disclose in writing to the client, or client's parent or legal guardian, the supervisor's name and contact information.

(1) Documentation of disclosure must be maintained in the client file and a copy given to the client or the client's parent or legal guardian, if applicable.

(2) The supervision disclosure must be updated and shared with the client, or the client's parent or legal guardian if applicable, as soon as practical whenever the LABA has a new supervisor.

(3) The supervision disclosure must be reviewed at least once per year to determine if it needs to be updated. The disclosure must be shared with the client or client's parent or guardian if updated.

(4) The client file must include documentation to reflect each time it is reviewed.
