

WAC 388-106-2040 When will my civil transitions program conditional services end? (1) If, at the time of your initial assessment you were found ineligible for medicaid-funded long-term services and supports, your civil transitions program conditional services, except supportive housing, will end the earlier of:

(a) The date you are found both functionally and financially eligible for medicaid-funded long-term services and supports;

(b) Six months from the start date of your services; or

(c) When the department has exhausted available funds.

(2) For conditional supportive housing services, your eligibility will be reviewed in six-month increments based upon available funding, up to a maximum of 24 months.
