

WAC 480-30-346 Tariffs and time schedules, page format. (1)

Tariff. All pages in an auto transportation company's tariff, except the title page, must include the following:

(a) A page header that includes:

(i) The identifying number of the tariff and canceled number, if any;

(ii) A page number and canceled number, if any;

(iii) A revision number and canceled number, if any;

(iv) The name and certificate number of the company filing the tariff; and

(v) Any applicable registered trade name.

(b) A page footer that includes:

(i) The name of the person filing the tariff;

(ii) The date the page is issued;

(iii) The date the page becomes effective; and

(iv) A box that is at least three-fourths of an inch in height, spanning from margin to margin, that is labeled "for official use only."

(2) Time schedule. An auto transportation company's filed time schedule must:

(a) Be numbered consecutively in the upper right-hand corner, beginning with number one, and must show the number of the time schedule canceled by it, if any. See sample time schedule.

(b) Show the company's identifying information, including but not limited to:

(i) The company's official name, as shown on the company's certificate;

(ii) The company's registered trade name(s), if any; and

(iii) The company's certificate number.

(c) Show all termini and points served.

(d) Show the routes served, including the exact location of each regular stop, each flag stop, and any point to which service is provided.

(e) Show points the company is authorized to serve but is not serving, if any, and the reason.

(f) Show the time of arrival and/or departure from all termini and scheduled stops.

(g) Show the periods in which specific provisions of the time schedule apply. For example, if a company services some routes only on certain days of the week, in certain seasons, or in certain months, that information must be clearly stated on the time schedule.

(h) At the bottom of the page, there must be a box that is at least three-fourths of an inch in height, spans from margin to margin and is labeled "for official use only."
