Brief Title: Eliminating immunity for state employees who commit unlawful harassment.

HB 1831 - DIGEST

Declares that a decision or action is not done in good faith if it meets the definition of unlawful harassment in RCW 10.14.020 regardless of whether it is done pursuant to any statutory authority or according to statutory and regulatory procedures.

Provides that department employees are not immune from liability arising from an investigation under Title 74 RCW if they commit unlawful harassment as defined in RCW 10.14.020, regardless of whether it is done pursuant to any statutory authority or according to statutory and regulatory procedures.
