

HB 1337 - DIGEST

Finds that developmental screening of infants and young children is a cost-effective method to identify developmental delays early and provide appropriate services to reduce the negative impact of the developmental delay.

Requires the department of social and health services to adopt a rule specifying: (1) Which developmental screening tools may be ordered for minors eligible for medical assistance; and

(2) The frequency of administering these developmental screens.