

Equal and Fair Representation

“Equal and Fair Representation” was the rallying cry of the Washington State League of Women Voters as the organization began its campaign for a new redistricting initiative in the fall of 1961. This drawing appeared on a statewide memo distributed in September of that year.

EQUAL and FAIR REPRESENTATION for WASHINGTON

CAN WE ACHIEVE IT?

**Memo cover provided by and used with the permission of the Washington State League of Women Voters, Seattle.*

A drawing of League ladies adorned in the fashions of the 1960s advocated equal political representation on the cover of a September 1961 statewide memo.

drawing provided by the Washington State League of Women Voters office