

RCW 24.03A.950 Attorney general's investigative power. Upon reasonable suspicion that there has been a violation of any provision of this chapter that governs the distribution, disposition, management, or expenditure of, or reporting obligations relating to, any property held for charitable purposes, or that a charitable corporation or property held for charitable purposes by a nonprofit corporation has been improperly administered, the attorney general may institute an investigation for the purpose of determining whether there has been such a violation or improper administration. [2021 c 176 s 4104.]

Effective date—2021 c 176: See note following RCW 24.03A.005.