

RCW 28B.118.080 Advising resources—Identification of officials, resources, programs, and students. Each institution of higher education is encouraged to tailor advising resources for any enrolled student who is the recipient of a college bound scholarship. The institutions of higher education should identify campus officials, resources, programs, and other college bound scholarship students available to work with college bound scholarship recipients. [2015 c 244 § 5.]

Findings—2015 c 244: See note following RCW 28B.118.010.
