RCW 36.70C.060 Standing. Standing to bring a land use petition under this chapter is limited to the following persons:

(1) The applicant and the owner of property to which the land use decision is directed;

(2) Another person aggrieved or adversely affected by the land use decision, or who would be aggrieved or adversely affected by a reversal or modification of the land use decision. A person is aggrieved or adversely affected within the meaning of this section only when all of the following conditions are present:

   (a) The land use decision has prejudiced or is likely to prejudice that person;

   (b) That person's asserted interests are among those that the local jurisdiction was required to consider when it made the land use decision;

   (c) A judgment in favor of that person would substantially eliminate or redress the prejudice to that person caused or likely to be caused by the land use decision; and

   (d) The petitioner has exhausted his or her administrative remedies to the extent required by law. [1995 c 347 § 707.]
