

RCW 54.04.180 Collective bargaining authorized for districts.

Any public utility district may enter into collective bargaining relations with its employees in the same manner that a private employer might do and may agree to be bound by the result of such collective bargaining. [1963 c 28 s 2.]