2024 individual market health plans

In 2019, the Washington state Legislature passed Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill \(ESSB\) 5526, which increased the availability of quality, affordable health coverage in the individual market. That legislation requires the Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC) to report annually on the number of individual health plans approved for sale in each county. This includes plans both on and off the Washington Health Benefit Exchange.¹ This is the fifth report fulfilling that directive.

Availability of coverage

For plan year (PY) 2025, every county will have at least three insurers offering health plans for sale in Washington state's individual market. Plans are available in gold, silver, bronze and catastrophic tiers.

Insurers are not required to offer coverage in specific counties or statewide and may opt to sell on the Washington state Health Benefit Exchange (the Exchange), off the Exchange or both. In addition, if an insurer offers coverage for the Public Employees' Benefits Board (PEBB) or the School Employees' Benefits Board (SEBB), they must also offer plans on the Exchange in the same counties it serves for PEBB or SEBB. If a consumer requests it, all insurers that sell plans on the Exchange are required to offer their health plans off the Exchange.

Standardized health plans, called Cascade Care standard plans, and public option plans, called Cascade Select plans, were offered on the Exchange for the first time in 2021. For PY 2025, there are 33 standard plans and nine public option plans, with at least one public option plan in all 39 counties. Each county will have between nine and 30 plans available.

Coverage on the Exchange

The following insurers will sell health plans on the Exchange. Companies that will sell both on and off the Exchange are noted with an asterisk (*).

- BridgeSpan Health Company
- Community Health Plan of Washington
- Coordinated Care Corporation
- Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Northwest*
- Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of Washington*

- LifeWise Health Plan of Washington
- Molina Healthcare of Washington
- Premera Blue Cross
- Regence BlueCross BlueShield of Oregon*
- Regence BlueShield*
- UnitedHealthcare of Oregon*

Coverage off the Exchange

These companies offer coverage only off the Exchange:

- Asuris Northwest Health
- Providence Health Plan

Coverage by county

The tables below list the insurers and numbers of plans available in each county in each plan tier, both on and off the Exchange.

Health plan tiers are gold, silver, bronze or catastrophic, and vary depending on the coverage. Gold plans pay for a greater share of health care costs than silver plans do. Silver plans pay for more than bronze and catastrophic plans offer very limited coverage.
