WAC 246-808-330  Discontinuation of care. If a chiropractor chooses to discontinue care, the chiropractor shall:

(1) Advise the patient in writing and document in the patient record that the chiropractor is terminating the doctor-patient relationship; and

(2) Advise the patient to seek any future treatment from another chiropractor or health care provider.