

WAC 388-76-10532 Resident rights—Standardized disclosure of services form. The adult family home is required to complete the department's standardized disclosure of services form.

(1) The home must:

(a) List on the form the scope of care and services available in the home;

(b) Send the completed form to the department; and

(c) Provide an updated form to the department thirty days prior to changing services, except in emergencies, when the scope of care and services is changing.

(2) The form does not:

(a) Replace the notice of services required when a resident is admitted to the adult family home as directed in chapter 388-76-10530 WAC.

(b) Replace any other form or policy as required in chapter 388-76 WAC.
