WAC 388-78A-2202 Respite—General. An assisted living facility:
(1) May provide short term respite care;
(2) Must limit the length of stay for an individual on respite to thirty calendar days or less; and
(3) Must not use respite as a placement pending the resident's admission to the assisted living facility.