- WAC 392-122-221 State institutional education program—Enrollment exclusions. (1) The following may not be counted as an enrolled institutional education program student:
- (a) A person whose educational activity under WAC 392-122-212 has terminated.
- (b) A person who has transferred to another institution, school district, or charter school.
 - (c) A person residing in a state institution who:
- (i) Has not engaged in educational activity under WAC 392-122-212 in the past five school days, excluding days of excused absence;
- (ii) Has not engaged in educational activity in the past ten school days under WAC 392-122-212, including days of excused absence; or
- (iii) Is claimed by any school district or charter school as an enrolled student eligible for state basic education support under chapter 392-121 WAC where the school district's count date occurs prior to the institution's count date for the month, except if the student is enrolled in a youth reengagement program under chapter 392-700 WAC.
- (2) When the institution's count date and the school district's or charter school's count date are on the same date, institutions shall have priority for counting the student.
- (3) As used in this section, "excused absence" means an absence from scheduled educational activity which certificated staff determine to be due to one or more of the following:
 - (a) Illness;
 - (b) Attendance in court; or
- (c) Meeting with a lawyer, case worker, counselor, physician, dentist, nurse, or other professional service provider.
