- WAC 392-172A-05115 Civil action. (1) Any party aggrieved by the findings and decision made under WAC 392-172A-05105 through 392-172A-05110 or 392-172A-05165 has the right to bring a civil action with respect to the due process hearing request. The action may be brought in any state court of competent jurisdiction or in a district court of the United States without regard to the amount in controversy.
- (2) The party bringing the action shall have ninety days from the date of the decision of the administrative law judge to file a civil action in federal or state court.
- (3) In any action brought under subsection (1) of this section, the court:
 - (a) Receives the records of the administrative proceedings;
 - (b) Hears additional evidence at the request of a party; and
- (c) Basing its decision on the preponderance of the evidence, grants the relief that the court determines to be appropriate.
- (4) The district courts of the United States have jurisdiction of actions brought under section 615 of the act without regard to the amount in controversy.
- (5) Nothing in this part restricts or limits the rights, procedures, and remedies available under the Constitution, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or other federal laws protecting the rights of students with disabilities, except that before the filing of a civil action under these laws seeking relief that is also available under section 615 of the act, the due process procedures under WAC 392-172A-05085 and 392-172A-05165 must be exhausted to the same extent as would be required had the action been brought under section 615 of the act.
