EFFECT: Removes provisions that decriminalize: possession of personal use amounts of controlled substances, counterfeit substances, and legend drugs; use of paraphernalia for personal use amounts of controlled substances; and distribution of paraphernalia by a social service agency or health care agency for personal use of controlled substances. Removes the modifications to the state preemption provision in the Controlled Substances Act that account for the decriminalization provisions. Removes the provision stating that nothing in the act prevents an employer from enforcing employment or workplace drug policies, regardless of whether a personal use amount is at issue.
