SSB 6220 - S COMM AMD

By Committee on Ways & Means

7 On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "Relating to" strike the 8 remainder of the title and insert "increasing the minimum legal age
9 of sale of high THC cannabis products to prevent psychosis; amending
10 RCW 69.50.357; creating new sections; and prescribing penalties."

EFFECT: Removes the provisions: (1) Providing legislative intent to provide the Department of Health (DOH) with recurring funding for targeted marketing campaigns related to the risks for persons under age 25 related to high THC products consumption; (2) requiring DOH to develop optional training for retail cannabis staff about health and safety impacts of high THC cannabis products; and (3) subject to funding, requiring the University of Washington Addictions, Drug, and Alcohol Institute to develop and implement guidance and health interventions for health care providers and patients at risk for developing serious complications due to cannabis consumption and to provide reports to the Legislature.
