ATTY/TYPIST: KT:rmh

BRIEF DESCRIPTION: Changing provisions relating to dishonored checks.

PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE HB 1347
by Representative Lantz

EFFECT: Provides that the debtor is presumed to receive the notice of dishonor on the third day from the mailing, as opposed to "not more than three days" of the mailing; Reorganizes the new provisions for collection agencies into their own sections.

1 AN ACT Relating to dishonored checks; and adding new sections to 2 chapter 62A.3 RCW.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) If a check as defined in RCW 62A.3-104
5 is dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment and the check is assigned 6 or written to a collection agency as defined in RCW 19.16.100, the 7 collection agency may collect a reasonable handling fee for each 8 instrument. If the collection agency or its agent provides a notice of 9 dishonor in the form provided in section 2 of this act to the drawer
10 and the check amount plus the reasonable handling fee are not paid
11 within thirty-three days after providing the notice of dishonor, then,
12 unless the instrument otherwise provides, the drawer of the instrument 13 is liable for payment of interest at the rate of twelve percent per 14 annum from the date of dishonor, and a cost of collection of forty 15 dollars or the face amount of the check, whichever is less, payable to 16 the collection agency. In addition, in the event of court action on 17 the check and after notice and the expiration of the thirty-three days, 18 the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees, and three times the 19 face amount of the check or three hundred dollars, whichever is less,

1 as part of the damages payable to the collection agency. This section 2 does not apply to an instrument that is dishonored by reason of a
3 justifiable stop payment order.

4 (2) Subsequent to the commencement of an action on the check under 5 subsection (1) of this section but prior to the hearing, the defendant 6 may tender to the plaintiff as satisfaction of the claim, an amount of 7 money equal to the face amount of the check, a reasonable handling fee, 8 accrued interest, collection costs equal to the face amount of the 9 check not to exceed forty dollars, and the incurred court costs,
10 service costs, and statutory attorneys' fees.

11 (3) Nothing in this section precludes the right to commence action
12 in a court under chapter 12.40 RCW for small claims.

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) If a check is assigned or written to a 14 collection agency as defined in RCW 19.16.100 and the collection agency
15 or its agent provides a notice of dishonor, the notice of dishonor may 16 be sent by mail to the drawer at the drawer's last known address. The 17 drawer is conclusively presumed to have received the notice of dishonor
18 on the third day from the date it is mailed. The collection agency 19 may, as an alternative to providing a notice in the form described in 20 RCW 62A.3-520, provide a notice in substantially the following form:

11 or not the collection agency regularly refers dishonored checks to law
12 enforcement, the cautionary statement in subsection (1) of this section

14 be taken or that cannot legally be taken; nor shall it be construed to 15 be harassing, oppressive, or abusive conduct; nor shall it be construed 16 to be a false, deceptive, or misleading representation; nor shall it be
