

WAC 137-28-200 Out-of-state incarcerated individuals. (1) Incarcerated individuals committed to the department of corrections who have been transferred to a prison in another state shall be subject to the disciplinary rules and procedures applicable to that prison. That prison may, in its discretion, use any presumptive sanction guidelines currently in effect in Washington state facilities.

(2) Incarcerated individuals committed to the department of corrections from other states shall be subject to the disciplinary rules and procedures currently in effect in the Washington state facility to which they are assigned.

(3) Each state shall forward all serious infraction reports and appeals to the originating state within seven days of the final action, and may include a recommendation that the incarcerated individual return to the originating state.
