If I want to operate my business from more than one office, do I have to license each location? Yes. You must submit a branch office application through the NMLS for each branch office, residential mortgage loan servicing location, student education loan servicing location, or direct solicitation location. You may not operate until a license is granted for that location.