

WAC 246-12-430 How to renew your retired volunteer medical worker license. (1) To renew a retired volunteer medical worker license, the licensee shall:

(a) Submit a written declaration stating they have met the continuing competency requirements defined in WAC 246-12-440; and

(b) Submit proof of current registration as a volunteer with a local organization for emergency services or management.

(2) There is no renewal fee.

(3) A retired volunteer medical worker licensee shall renew their license every three years.

(4) Prior to the expiration date, courtesy renewal notices are sent by mail or email to the contact information on file. The licensee shall renew their license online or return the renewal notice when renewing by mail. Failure to receive a courtesy renewal notice does not relieve or exempt the retired volunteer medical worker license renewal requirement.
