

WAC 388-61A-1050 What activities are not considered prevention?

While valuable, we do not consider certain activities to be prevention. Examples of these activities include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Community education as defined in this chapter;
- (2) Transformative and restorative justice efforts;
- (3) Single session or one-time activities, such as trainings, presentations, or events;
- (4) Activities that focus on defining domestic violence, or teaching data, dynamics, and the impacts of domestic violence;
- (5) Providing information on how to access domestic violence services or how to help others in accessing services;
- (6) Support groups as defined in this chapter (support groups are considered a supportive service); and
- (7) Activities that focus on improving responsiveness to domestic violence survivors by community members or system partners.
