CERTIFIED COUNSELORS, CERTIFIED ADVISERS, AND HYPNOTHERAPISTS

WAC 246-810-0201 Practice scope and limits for certified counselors. The scope of practice for a certified counselor is found in RCW 18.19.200 and consists exclusively of the following:

(1) Appropriate screening of the client's level of functional impairment using the global assessment of functioning as described in the fourth edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders. Recognition of a mental or physical disorder or a global assessment of functioning score of 60 or less requires that the certified counselor refer the client for diagnosis and treatment to a licensed health care practitioner unless otherwise permitted in this section.

(2) If the client has a global assessment of functioning score greater than 60, a certified counselor may counsel and guide the client in adjusting to life situations, developing new skills, and making desired changes, in accordance with the theories and techniques of a specific counseling method and established practice standards.

(3) If the client has a global assessment of functioning score of 60 or less, a certified counselor may counsel and guide the client in adjusting to life situations, developing new skills, and making desired changes, in accordance with the theories and techniques of a specific counseling method and established practice standards if:

(a) The client has been referred to the certified counselor by a licensed health care practitioner and care is provided as part of a plan of treatment developed by the referring practitioner who is actively treating the client. The certified counselor must adhere to any conditions related to the certified counselor's role as specified in the plan of care; or

(b) The certified counselor referred the client to a licensed health care practitioner for diagnosis and treatment and the client refused, in writing, to seek diagnosis and treatment from the other provider. The certified counselor may provide services to the client consistent with a treatment plan developed by the certified counselor and their consultant or supervisor.

(4) A certified counselor must not be the sole treatment provider for a client with a global assessment of functioning score of less than 50.

WAC 246-810-025 Supervision and consultation requirements for certified counselors and supervision requirements for certified advisers. Certified counselors and certified advisers shall meet the following supervision or consultation requirements:

(1) Written agreement. A certified counselor or certified adviser shall have a written agreement with a qualified supervisor or, for a certified counselor eligible under WAC 246-810-0221(2), a qualified consultant. Both parties shall review, update, and renew the agreement at least every two years. The agreement must address:

- (a) The agreement duration;
- (b) Expectations of both parties;
- (c) Client confidentiality;
- (d) Potential conflict of interest;
- (e) Financial arrangements;
- (f) Frequency and modalities of supervision or consultation under subsection (2) of this section; and
- (g) Recordkeeping under subsection (3) of this section.

(2) Frequency and modalities of supervision or consultation.

(a) Supervision frequency and modalities:

(i) During the first five years of practice, a minimum of two hours of supervision is required in any calendar month in which the certified counselor or certified adviser has had 40 or more client contact hours.

(ii) After five years of practice, a minimum of one hour of supervision is required in any calendar month in which the certified counselor or certified adviser has 40 or more client contact hours.

(iii) A minimum of two hours of supervision is required in any calendar quarter, regardless of the years in practice or number of client contact hours.

(iv) Up to half of the required supervision time may be supervision of practice in a group setting;

(b) Consultation frequency and modalities for certified counselors eligible under WAC 246-810-0221(2). When a certified counselor has 40 or more direct client contact hours per calendar quarter they must complete at least one hour of consultation. The certified counselor is responsible for determining the appropriate frequency of additional consultation.

(3) Recordkeeping. A certified counselor or certified adviser and supervisor or consultant shall maintain a written record of meeting hours and topics. This written record must be maintained by both the supervisor or consultant and the certified counselor or certified adviser.

WAC 246-810-035 Record requirements. (1) A counselor providing professional services to a client or providing services billed to a third-party payee, must document services, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The documentation must include:

- (a) Client name;
- (b) The fee arrangement and record of payments;
- (c) Dates counseling was received;
- (d) Disclosure form, if required by WAC 246-810-031, signed by the counselor and client;
- (e) The presenting problem(s), or purpose of counseling;
- (f) Notation and results of formal consults, including information obtained from other persons or agencies through a release of information; and
- (g) Progress notes sufficient to support responsible clinical practice for the type of theoretical orientation or therapy the counselor uses.

(2) If a client requests that no treatment records be kept, and the counselor agrees to the request, the request must be in writing and only the following must be retained:

- (a) Client name;
- (b) Fee arrangement and record of payments;
- (c) Dates counseling was received;
- (d) Disclosure form, if required by WAC 246-810-031, signed by the counselor and client; and
- (e) Written request that no records be kept.

(3) The counselor may not agree to the request if maintaining records is required by other state or federal law.

(4) All records must be kept secured, with properly limited access.

(5) All records must be kept for a period of six years following the last visit. For minor clients, records must be retained for six years after the date they turned 21 years old.

(6) Special provisions must be made for the retention or transfer of active or inactive records and for continuity of services in the event of a counselor's death, incapacitation, or cessation of practice. Such special provisions may be made by having another counselor review records with a client and recommend a course of action; or other appropriate means as determined by the counselor.

(7) After the six-year retention period, the counselor may dispose of the record. Disposal must be done in a secure and confidential manner that includes:

- (a) Shredding;
- (b) Deleting, erasing, or reformatting electronic media; or
- (c) Rendering unusable or unreadable any other forms of media.

WAC 246-810-045 Requirements for client fees paid in advance.

(1) Counselors who collect fees in advance of the service provided must separate such funds from operating or expense funds. The counselor may not spend the funds until the service is provided. Any funds left in the account for services not provided must be returned to the client within 30 days of the request.

(2) Room rental fees or similar expenses, for example, as relating to group therapy, are not considered fees paid in advance.
